#4: Broadway Theater Tickets

Two tickets for Saint Joan at the Samuel J. Friedman Theatre in New York

Three-time Tony Award nominee Condola Rashad (A Doll's House, Part 2) will star as one of history's greatest heroines in a major new production of Bernard Shaw's epic work directed by Daniel Sullivan (Lillian Hellman's The Little Foxes). Set in 15th century France, Saint Joan follows a country girl whose mysterious visions propel her into elite circles. When the nation's rulers become threatened by her popularity and influence, they unite to bring her down and she finds herself on trial for her life. This timeless and powerful play dramatizes the limits of an individual in a society dominated by overwhelming political and religious forces.

Please Note: Production opens in April 2018.

#6: Farm to Table Dinner Party at RI Estate

Locally sourced dinner for up to 18 at historic Rhode Island farm featured in Country Living Magazine

Enjoy an authentic New England farm-to-table experience for up to 18 people at the historic Red Gate Farm in Foster, Rhode Island. You'll take in sweeping pastoral views of Rhode Island and Connecticut while enjoying wine in the perennial garden. Dinner, prepared by Desi and Eric Wolf (of Loie Fuller), will be served in a beautifully restored early 1800s, antique-filled farm house. The chefs will impress with locally sourced dishes. A truly enchanting evening.

Please Note: Date to be mutually agreed upon. Must take place between May and October 2018.

#8: New York, New York Theater Tickets

Two tickets for Public Theater and two tickets for Atlantic Theater Company

Love New York? Plan your theatergoing trip this spring. Package includes two tickets for a spring 2018 production at Atlantic Theater Company and two tickets for a production at the Public Theater. (At the Atlantic, we're particularly excited about Martin McDonagh's Hangmen and This Ain't No Disco, by the same team that wrote Hedwig and the Angry Inch). The Public hasn't announced their spring 2018 offerings yet, but they are sure to have stellar options.)
