Pride and Prejudice
by Kate Hamill • Adapted from the novel by Jane Austen
October 4 – November 4, 2018

The treasured and iconic “will they or won’t they” romance between Elizabeth Bennett and Mr. Darcy is infused with fresh vitality and hilarity in this effervescent new comedic adaptation. Mrs. Bennett is determined to find suitable husbands for her daughters, but can’t quite get fiercely independent Elizabeth on board — at least not when it comes to the impossibly arrogant Mr. Darcy. At once both warmly familiar and surprisingly funny, the Bennett family’s shenanigans have never felt so modern.

A Christmas Carol
By Charles Dickens • Original music by Richard Cumming
Directed by Mark Valdez • November 8 – December 30, 2018

Rhode Island’s family holiday classic returns with the joyful story of Ebenezer Scrooge’s journey from solitude to redemption. Inspired by Tiny Tim and the ghosts of Christmas Past, Present, and Future, Scrooge learns lessons that remind us all about the true spirit of the season. Trinity Rep’s magical, music-filled production continues to delight New England audiences.

black odyssey
by Marcus Gardley • Based on Homer’s Odyssey
Directed by Kent Gash • January 3 – February 3, 2019

After Ulysses Lincoln is lost at sea and presumed dead, the Gulf War veteran struggles to find his way back home to his wife and son while unknowingly being controlled by a host of gods — both scheming and benevolent. Along the way, he must confront his ancestral past so that he can embrace his unsettled present. His journey is an epic, breathtaking, and gloriously theatrical reimagining of Homer’s classic that brilliantly combines Greek mythology and African-American history of the last 50 years.

An Iliad • Limited Engagement!
by Lisa Peterson and Denis O’Hare
Based on Homer’s The Iliad, translated by Robert Fagles
February 6–10, 2019

The journey with the great poet Homer continues with this special theatrical event. A captivating lone storyteller recounts the familiar tales of gods and goddesses, wars and battles, and humanity’s unshakable attraction to violence, destruction, and chaos over the millennia. This limited-run special engagement is sure to sell out and until October 1 will only be available to season subscribers.

PLEASE NOTE: The program for the limited engagement run of An Iliad will be combined with the program for black odyssey

Macbeth
by William Shakespeare
Directed by Curt Columbus • January 31 – March 3, 2019

This Shakespearean thriller bursts at breakneck speed with more suspense, murder, and madness than any blockbuster film. Tempted by the eerie visions of three mysterious witches and pushed by his ruthless wife, Macbeth is determined to grab what he wants — the throne of Scotland. Unchecked greed and ambition fuel his bloody rise to power, but his ego ultimately brings about his brutal end, while Lady Macbeth’s guilt and paranoia lead to one of theater’s most riveting descents into madness.

The Song of Summer
by Lauren Yee
Directed by Taibi Magar • March 14 – April 14, 2019

That song on every radio and wedding DJ’s playlist — that catchy earworm that’s inescapable for an entire summer — the “song of the summer” … there’s more to it than everyone knows. There’s more to know about its singer, too — like why he snuck away from a concert and traveled hundreds of miles to visit the home of his childhood piano teacher. What — and who — he finds there could change his career and his life. A touching story about how revisiting the past can change our future.

Little Shop of Horrors
Book & Lyrics by Howard Ashman • Music by Alan Menken
Directed by Tyler Dobrowsky • April 11 – May 12, 2019

A perennially-popular, award-winning musical, Little Shop of Horrors blends doo-wop, rock, and Motown into a charming and totally-twisted must-see Trinity Rep event. A strange and unusual plant seems like just the thing to save a beleaguered Skid Row flower shop and its hapless employees, Seymour and Audrey. But when that plant turns out to feed only on blood and is inclined toward world-domination, well…things get a little messy. This deviously-delicious musical will be fun for the whole family.

Marisol
by José Rivera
Directed by Brian Mertes • May 16 – June 16, 2019

Marisol goes to bed in her New York City apartment, but awakens after a visit from her guardian angel to a surreal and crumbling new reality. The Bronx has become a battlefield as leather-clad angels take up arms against an old and dying God in a war to save the universe. The moon has disappeared, food has turned to salt, and chaos follows Marisol at every turn as she attempts to find hope among the ruins in this primal, poetic, fantastical, and often humorous contemporary classic.
