(Insert name of companion or companions)

A play is a live form of entertainment.
Actors will be right in front of me in the theater.

The show is on April 9 at 7:30 pm,
but I can go and see my seats
early that day at 6:30 pm.

A red rectangular graphic with a grid of seven squares at the top, each containing a number from 7 to 13. Below the grid, the text "APRIL 09 SHOWS" is centered. To the left, "7:30PM" is followed by "The Song of Summer" and "Sensory Friendly". To the right, there is a "BUY TICKETS" button with a right-pointing arrow.

The Song of Summer takes place at Trinity Rep in the Lederer Theater Center at 201 Washington Street in Providence, Rhode Island.

I can bring fidget toys, non-crunchy snacks, and _____ (name of object) with me to the play.

If I bring a snack and it has any type of packaging, I will open it before the play to not disturb other audience members, or the actors.

When I arrive at the theater, I may have to wait in line at the Box Office to pick up tickets.

I will try to be quiet and stay with

(name of companion)

while we wait for tickets.

When we go into the lobby, someone with a Trinity Rep name tag will show me where to go.

An usher will show me where to enter the theater.

At this time, if I need to go to the bathroom or get a drink of water, I can go with

(name of companion).

At 6:30, there is a prologue in the Dowling Theater.

A prologue is where a member of Trinity Rep talks about the show and the behind-the-scene process without spoilers. This is optional so I can go if I want to.

My companion and I have tickets that tell us the row and number of our seats. We need to sit in these exact seats because they are reserved for us.

This is not a choice!

Someone will show my companion
and me where seats are.

The show begins at 7:30 pm.

Before the show, someone will tell us we cannot use phones or cameras in the theater during the show.

Once the play begins, I will watch actors performing in the same room as me.

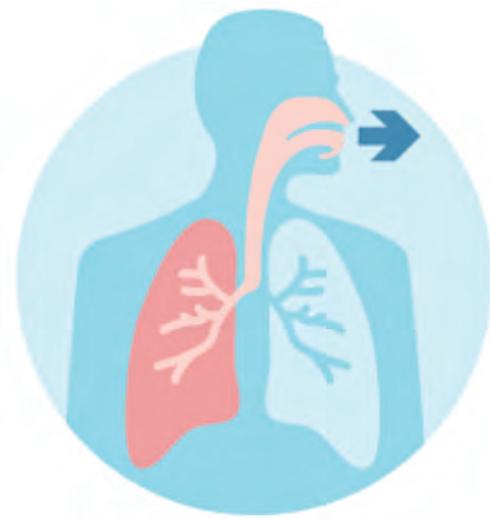

The story is about a pop singer who returns to his hometown and has a life changing experience.

If I get scared or overwhelmed,
I can go with _____ (name of companion)
to the lobby to relax.

I can count to 10 slowly, take 5 deep breaths,
or use _____ (name of favorite fidget toy)

When — or if — I'm ready to return to my seat,
an usher can help me back into the audience.

The play is one hour and 30 minutes long
so there will be no intermission.

When the play is over, I can show that I enjoyed it by giving them
a big round of applause!

I had fun with

seeing The Song of Summer
at Trinity Rep!
