Little Shop of Horrors

book & lyrics by Howard Ashman music by Alan Menken

I am going to see Little Shop of Horrors with

(Insert name of companion or companions)

A play is a live form of entertainment.
Actors will be right in front of me in the theater.

The show is on May 11 at 2:00 pm,
but I can go and see my seats
early that day at 1:00 pm.

Little Shop of Horrors takes place at Trinity Rep in the Lederer Theater Center at 201 Washington Street in Providence, Rhode Island.

When I arrive at the theater, I may have to wait in line at the Box Office to pick up tickets.

I will try to be quiet and stay with

_____ (name of companion)

while we wait for tickets.

When we go into the lobby, someone with a Trinity Rep name tag will show me where to go.

At this time, if I need to go to the bathroom or get a drink of water, I can go with

_____ (name of companion).

I can either take the elevator or stairs to get to the 3rd floor.

An usher will show me where to enter the theater.

At 1:00 pm, there is a prologue in the Chace Theater.

A prologue is where a member of Trinity Rep talks about the show and the behind-the-scene process without spoilers. This is optional so I can go if I want to.

My companion and I have tickets that tell us the row and number of our seats. We need to sit in these exact seats because they are reserved for us.

This is not a choice!

Someone will show my companion
and me where seats are.

The show begins at 2:00 pm.

Before the show, someone will tell us we cannot use phones or cameras in the theater during the show.

Once the play begins, I will watch actors performing in the same room as me.

The story is about a man-eating plant that wreaks havoc on a failing florist shop on Skid Row.

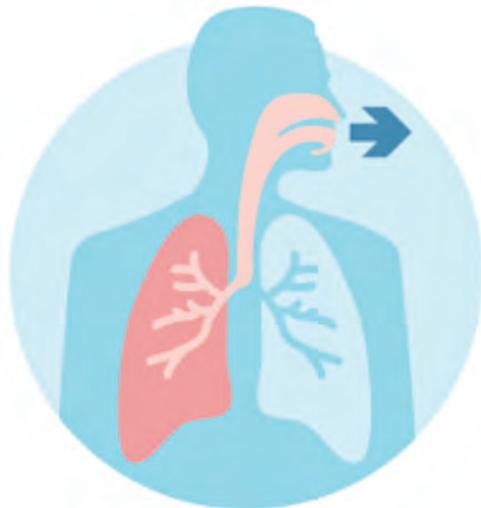

The play includes scenes of murder and the plant looks frightening, but it is really a puppet, and the violence is not real.

If I get scared or overwhelmed,
I can go with _____ (name of companion)
to the lobby to relax.

I can also watch from the back of the audience
on the bench seats.

I can count to 10 slowly, take 5 deep breaths,
or use _____ (name of favorite fidget toy)

When — or if — I'm ready to return to my seat, an usher can help me back into the audience.

Halfway through the play, we will have a break to stretch, go to the bathroom, or get a snack. This is called an intermission.

The intermission will last 15 minutes.
Afterwards, we will return to our seats to watch the rest of the play.

When the play is over, I can show that I enjoyed it by giving them a big round of applause!

I had fun with

_____ (name of companion)

seeing Little Shop of Horrors
at Trinity Rep!
