Updated as of 4/17/19

If you have not signed up to volunteer at Little Shop of Horrors what are you waiting for; you'll probably want to see it more than once. And...Marisol is now in rehearsals. The end of the season is in sight, but not before many more full houses and great performances.

Staff Rate Ticket Blackout Dates: Little Shop – Matinees: 4/20, 4/28, 5/5

Ushers: to be on pace to fulfill your 10 performance commitment for the season you should have already done 7 or more shows. If you haven't please start looking for upcoming performances you can sign up for. Feel free to contact Steve if you have any questions or issues.

If you haven't already heard about next season...where have you been? The Prince of Providence followed by A Christmas Carol means that we will be hopping from September through December. And that's just the start...here's where you can find 'the rest of the story.' <https://www.trinityrep.com/shows/1920season/>

Following is a listing of performances for which we still need help for the upcoming season; all times listed are curtain times. There may be singleton openings that are not listed. Performances listed in bold have more openings than those not, and those in bold italics are the performances for which we need the most help. The times listed are curtain times; call time is 1 hr 15 min prior. This on line listing is updated only once per week, and since slots can fill or open up at any point in time it will not be 100% accurate at most points in time. To see open slots please log on to your profile in Patron Manager and check dates/performances there.
